AVERTISSEMENT.

Nous offrons dans ce Volume tout ce que nous avons pu rassembler de Planches dessinées & gravées par Jean Marot, entr'autres celles que la variété de leurs sujets, ou leur extrême petitesse ont empêché d'insérer dans le grand Cuvrage connu sous le titre d'Architecture Françoise. On trouvera donc ici plusieurs Palais & Hôtels de l'ancien Paris, quelques châteaux & maisons de campagne, diverses Eglises bâties, soit à Paris, soit en Italie ou ailleurs, quelques autres monumens, & beaucoup de compositions d'Architecture en dissérens genres, de l'invention de cet illustre Artiste qui joignoit une grande facilité de dessein à beaucoup de propreté & de correction dans ses gravures. Ce Recueil est terminé par une suite de petits Temples dans le goût Antique, qui n'ont pas encore paru, & qui sont une nouvelle preuve de l'heureuse sertilité du génie de leur inventeur, par la grande variété qu'on remarque dans leurs formes, & par la richesse de leurs plans & de leurs élevations. Au défaut d'un plus long discours, dont les planches que renferme ce Volume ne sont guere sufceptibles, nous terminerons cet Avertissement par le peu de particularités que nous avons appris de la vie de cet homme célebre.

Jean Marot, Architecte & Graveur, naquit à Paris vers le milieu du fiecle passé, & y florissoit encore dans le commencement de celui-ci. Outre les édifices qu'il peut avoir fait construire & qui ne sont pas venus à notre connoissance, il a bâti en 1713, d'après ses desseins, le Portail de l'Eglise des Feuillantines, au fauxbourg Saint Jacques, à Paris. La composition de ce monument est en général d'une belle ordonnance, & la proportion des principales masses en est assez correcte, quoi-qu'on apperçoive des négligences dans son exécution. L'ancienne saçade de l'Hôtel de Pussort, à présent l'Hôtel de Noailles, la maison de M. le Duc de Mortemart, Gouverneur de Paris, rue Saint Guillaume, ou rue des Rosiers, à Paris, ainsi que le château de Turny, en Bourgogne, & celui de Lavardin, dans le Maine, sont encore de sa composition. Au reste cet excellent Artiste étoit plus employé à faire des Desseins d'Architecture & à les graver, qu'à conduire & exécuter des bâtimens. Quoiqu'il n'eût pas une grande maniere, il doit néanmoins être regardé comme un Architecte de mérite, du moins pour la théorie, par l'exactitude avec laquelle il a toujours suivi les regles de la bonne Architecture. Ses desseins d'Arcs de Triomphe, de Portes de ville, de Palais à la Grecque, de Portails d'Eglises, d'Autels, Tabernacles, Vases, &c; & sur-tout ses petits Temples dans le goût Antique qui se trouvent à la sin de ce Recueil, sont des preuves non équivoques de l'abondance de ses compositions & de la correction de ses idées. D'ailleurs on est redevable aux soins laborieux de cet Artiste intelligent d'avoir transmis à la postérité, par le moyen de la gravure, dans laquelle il excelloit, la plûpart des anciens édifices & des autres monumens de France qui existoient de son tems, & qui avoient quelque réputation. Il en a donné au Public deux Recueils de format dissérent; l'un qui ne se trouve plus, en un gros volume in-folio, connu sous le titre du grand Marot, lequel contenoit 260 planches, toutes dessinées & gravées de sa main; & celuici, auquel nous avons donné le nom du petit Marot. On ignore également & l'année de la naissance & celle de la mort de cet homme illustre, tout ce qu'on sait, c'est qu'il avoit pris le titre d'Architecte Parisien, ce qui fait présumer qu'il est né à Paris, qu'il y a passe une grande partie de sa vie, & qu'il est mort dans cette Capitale; il y a laisse un fils qui a tenu long-tems une brasserie aux Gobelins.

Daniel Marot, étoit aussi Parissen, & vraisemblablement de la même famille. Son attachement pour la Religion Protestante, dans laquelle il avoit été élevé, l'ayant obligé de quitter la France, lors de la révocation de l'Edit de Nantes, il passa en Hollande, où le Prince d'Orange, depuis Roi d'Angleterre, le prit à son service, en qualité de son Architecte. Il avoit un génie très-sertile, dessinoit facilement & gravoit également bien. Il mit au jour, à Amsterdam, en 1712, un Recueil de ses Œuvres, en un Volume in-folio très-considérable, contenant une très-grande quantité de planches d'Architecture, de décorations de Théatres, & d'ornemens de toute espece, dessinées & gravées par lui-même. Daniel Marot mourut à la Haye, quelque tems après la publication de ce Recueil, avec le titre d'Architecte de Guillaume III, Roi d'Angleterre. On trouvera dans le Repertoire des Artistes, que nous mettrons au jour incessamment, divers morceaux d'Architecture dessinés & gravés par ces deux habiles Artistes.
